

THE SPREAD EAGLE

Weddings

One of a kind

The Spread Eagle Hotel in Oxfordshire has stood imposingly in the heart of historic Thame since the 16th century, famous for its farmer's market and mile long main street. During its colourful history this Thame hotel has played host to Charles II, French prisoners from Napoleonic wars, famous politicians and writers such as Evelyn Waugh.

The fantastic city of Oxford, with its dreaming spires and punting on the River Thames is within easy reach, along with the historic town of Aylesbury and for shopping addicts, Bicester Outlet Village is only minutes away. The Spread Eagle is one of the best placed hotels in Oxfordshire from which to explore all the county has to offer.

Memories

The Spread Eagle Hotel was once made famous by John Fothergill, the eccentric Proprietor.

Lovingly named in his memory, Fothergill's Hall is the perfect venue for an unforgettable day, whether it is for the civil ceremony, wedding breakfast or evening party.

The Spread Eagle Hotel offers an unrivalled location in the heart of the South Oxfordshire countryside overlooking the market town of Thame.

Seating up to 220 guests and accommodating up to 300 for an evening party, we offer bespoke packages where every element of your day can be individually tailored. The John Fothergill Hall has its own private bar facilities, ample parking and with 35 comfortable bedrooms; you can be assured of an intimate and enchanting setting for your special day.

We also have cosier rooms available for smaller gatherings, civil ceremonies and civil partnerships.

Especially for you

We have created some great packages that include the essentials that you need for your special day.

We know how much thought and organisation is involved in planning a wedding, so our packages are designed to take the stress away. They even include one of our event planners to help you along the way and give you tips and advice on how to make your day just what you have always dreamed of.

The Spread Eagle Hotel has grounds to host your drinks reception and photographs or even hold a hog roast on a balmy summers evening.

Please find our package details inserted into this pack for more information.
